6th Grade Theme: Discovering Ourselves and Creating Community

The thematic focus for 6th Grade Language Arts is "Discovering Ourselves and Creating Community." Throughout the year, readers will explore how characters' identities are shaped by their experiences and relationships with others. Additionally, they will analyze how individuals come together to form communities.

Part I: Identifying Character Traits

As you read, identify two major characters from your selected book. Identify one character trait for each character. Then, find three pieces of evidence from the text that illustrate the character trait. If you need more space, you can use another sheet of paper.

Character and Trait	Evidence from text (Include the page number)
Character 1: Trait:	1 page # _____
	2 page # _____
	3 page # _____

Character and Trait	Evidence from text (Include the page number)
Character 2: Trait:	1 page # _____
	2 page # _____
	3 page # _____

Part II: Conflict and Resolution

Identify a conflict in the book and then determine how it was resolved. Use the chart below to take notes on the conflict and the resolution.

Conflict: A problem within a character or between a character and an outside force. What is the problem?	Resolution: The manner in which a conflict is solved How is the conflict solved?

Using the notes above, write a paragraph describing the conflict and how it was resolved. You can type or write your paragraph on a separate sheet of paper.
