2020 Coriell Science Fair Winners

Congratulations to the following Cherry Hill Public Schools high school students for their achievements in the Coriell Science Fair, which was held virtually in April.

Cherry Hill High School West:
Aidan Garber - 1st place, Behavioral and Social Science, 9/10th grade
Ethan Bovell- 2nd place, Biochemistry, 9/10th grade
Ian Sachs- 1st place, Chemistry, 11/12th grade
Gabriella Huegel- 1st place, Computer Science, 11/12th grade
Samantha Lafferty - 1st place, Medicine and Health, 11/12th grade
Eliana Birnbaum- 3rd place, Medicine and Health, 11/12th grade
Jewel La Bletta- 1st place, Medicine and Health, 9/10th grade
Kiana Amora- 1st place, Microbiology, 11/12th grade
Samara Pritchett- 1st place, Microbiology, 9/10th grade

Cherry Hill High School East:
Rhea Sharma – 1st place, Behavioral Science, 11/12th grade
Vox Ch’ng – 2nd place, Behavioral Science, 9/10th grade
Yarden Yanushkevich – 3rd place, Behavioral Science, 9/10th grade
Riva Sharma – 1st place, Engineering, 9/10th grade
Jazz Ch’ng – 1st place, Environmental Science, 9/10th grade
Rami Awad – 2nd place, Medicine and Health, 9/10th grade
Antonio Ferraro – 3rd place, Medicine and Health, 9/10th grade

Henry C. Beck Middle School:
Aniket Chintapalli – 3rd place, Microbiology, 6th grade

Rosa International Middle School:
Arman, Gia and Karina Gupta – 1st place, Team Projects, 8th grade

Students who placed 1st or 2nd in their category have been invited to participate in the Delaware Valley Regional Science Fair sponsored by Drexel University.