Cherry Hill Public Schools

Hello everyone, this is Joe Meloche, Superintendent of the Cherry Hill Public School District. Today is Tuesday, June 2nd, and I have some very important updates. I've heard from a lot of families and students and staff members during the course of the past week addressing all of the challenge and strife and heartache and pain that exist in our country. On Saturday I put a letter out to the community that addressed the tragic death of Mr. Floyd and what we are doing as a School District. Today we have updated our website with additional supports about how to talk to your children about race, how to deal with trauma for children, as well as additional resources. It is time for us as a community to address the racism that exists, it's time for us to continue as a school district to invest our time and our energies into our cultural proficiency and equity and character ed work, to support our families and children of color. They are our Cherry Hill and we must do this together. This has been a minute.
