To Whom It May Concern:

The Cherry Hill Public School District is closed, effective Monday, March 16, 2020. The district will remain closed until a determination is made by the Governor that schools may be reopened.

During the closure our students will participate in remote learning opportunities. There will be no childcare provided during the time period that the schools are closed.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions or if you need any further clarification.

Regards,

Joseph N. Meloche, Ed.D.
Superintendent of Schools
