Board Representative Reports

Cherry Hill West Board Representative Tim Intelisano presented a report with a theme of the “future” at Cherry Hill West. He explained the upcoming “Freshman Integration Program” in which 38 peer leaders from West would be attending a retreat at Camp Ockanickon, working with the Outward Bound program on leadership training. The peer leaders will then assist with West’s August 26 Freshman Orientation and cookout. Mr. Intelisano also noted students’ desire for building upkeep and upgrades, with volunteers willing to paint. He also mentioned that students would soon begin preseason sports practices, and that the West football team intends to keep “the boot” trophy in the East vs. West football rivalry.

There was no report from Cherry Hill East because neither the representative nor the alternate was present.
